Light
has many forms:
It may appear as the definable
glare;
the brightness of sunshine;
or the product of man's ingenuity;
We see it in all forms every day.

It is the abstract which appeals to the mind;
the idealistic flame;
a wisdom in the darkness;
the realization of man . . .
God.

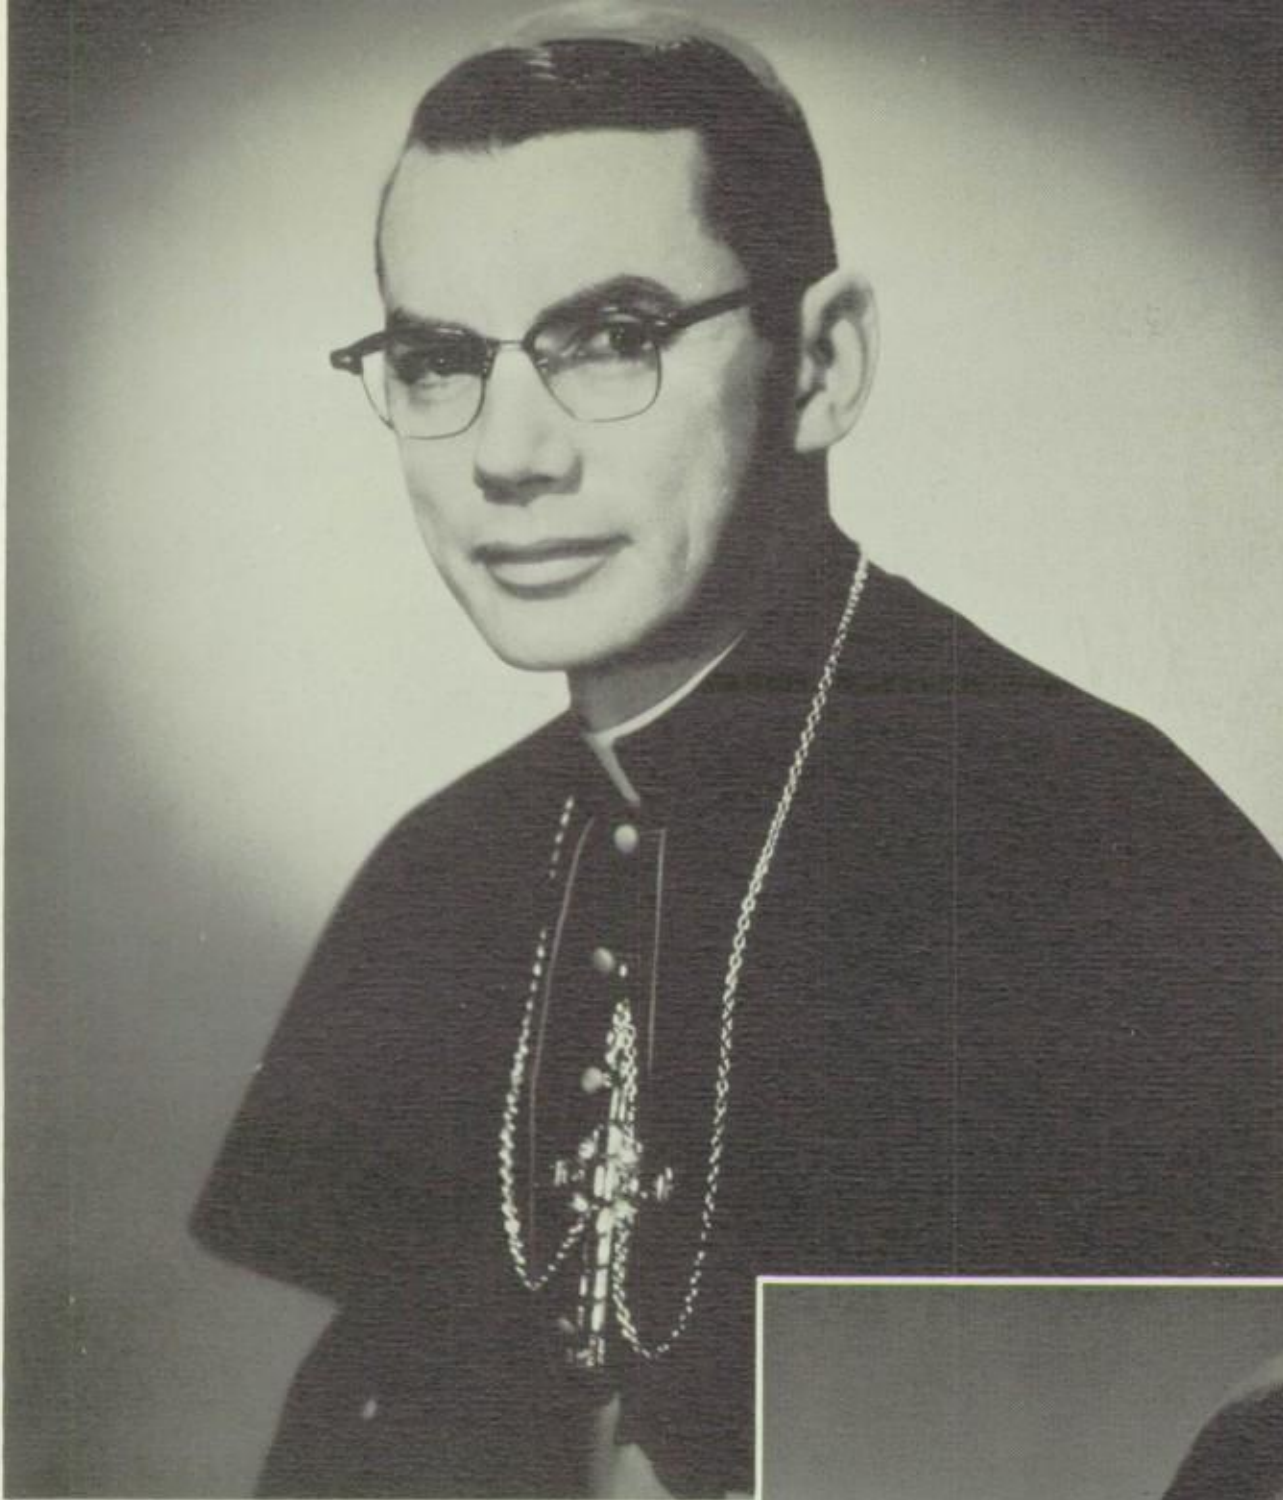

Ultimate Light is the goal of time
and study
and work . . .
the purpose and end
of each individual.

social studies

The Social Studies department develops in the students respect for individuals regardless of their race, color, nationality, or religion and enables them to form sound convictions through evaluation of current events. American Government, taught by Miss Mohr and Mrs. Purciel, explores the privileges and responsibilities of citizens in a democratic society. Senior sociology emphasizes man's relationship to his fellow man. In classes taught by Sister Mary Otteran, Miss Clem, and Mrs. Purciel, students learn that . . . "there is a somber lesson in history."

Sister Mary Otteran—
head of the Social Studies department

Sister Mary Eunan

The science department stresses knowledge and appreciation of life as it is known to modern science. Biology and Chemistry courses taught by Sister Mary Otteran and Sister Mary Triona, and Physics taught by Mr. Smith, present the principles, both physical and chemical, which govern matter. Physiology classes are conducted by Sister Mary Eunan and General Science is taught by Miss Yanis.

math

The aims of the math department are to present the basic properties of mathematics and emphasize its application to other fields. It encourages and trains students to develop their reasoning powers and logic. Underclassmen are taught the required courses of Algebra I and Geometry by Sister Mary Nicholas and Mrs. Anderson. The Advanced Math course is presented by Sister Mary de Pazzi.

languages

Besides the basics of grammar, the language department stresses the importance of knowing the people behind the French, Spanish, and Latin languages. Through the use of records, slides, and films, and taught by Sister Mary Molua, Miss Mohr, Mrs. Clegg, and Mrs. DuBarry, students become aware of the customs, lands, and history of the French and Spanish people. Latin, taught by Sister Mary Paul, Sister Mary dePazzi, and Mr. Sidoné, lays a broad foundation of classical study and develops an awareness of the points of contact between Latin and other studies.

the arts

Miss Barbara Clem

Talent, creativity, and hardwork characterize the music, drama, and art departments. The many activities of the choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Paul and Mr. Paul Salamunovich, have earned it exceptional recognition. The drama department, headed by Miss Clem, views the theater as a source of both education and enjoyment. Art classes are supervised and guided by Mrs. Harshman and the Freshman Social Etiquette course, directed by Miss Ryan, is conducted weekly.

a variety of approaches helps unite the apostles of prayer

Students participate in the new liturgy.

Kristie Gimenez, Chris Card and June King adapt folk songs to the theme of a monthly meeting.

Officers of the Apostleship: Sandy Gonzales, Treasurer; Kathy Kantner, Secretary; Mary Pile, Vice-president; Frances Riggs, President.

Modern scripture services have been the highlight of the Apostleship of Prayer this year. Songs, collages, and scripture readings have been used striving to involve the members of the Apostleship of Prayer in the common purpose of dedicating their lives and actions to the Sacred Heart. By presenting each month's general meeting under the direction of a different class, it has been possible to achieve a variety of approaches for joining the entire student body in the spirit of unity with Christ.

Officers of the Sodality: Debbie Joyce, Vice-Prefect (Jr.); Cathy Herdering, Vice-Prefect (Sen.); Laura Capizzi, Secretary (Sen.); Tamara Calasanti, Treasurer (Sen.); Chris Card, Prefect (Sen.); and Barbara Wagner, Secretary-Treasurer (Jr.) discuss the next Sodality meeting with the moderators, Sister Mary Nicholas and Sister Mary Molua. Absent: Marianne Barber.

sodality of our lady promotes a christian way of life

The Sodality of Our Lady is an organization with a definite program for helping its members to become more Christ-like and for bringing others closer to Christ. Directed by Sister Mary Nicholas and Sister Mary Molua, the Sodalists have tried to reach this goal by living the Sodality way of life, attending weekly meetings, and participating in Sodality activities.

In July, 1965, fifteen Sodalists attended the Summer School of Christian Apostolate in San Francisco. During the school year, the Sodality sponsored a three-day closed retreat which was held at the Monastery of the Angels in Hollywood. In April, the Sodalists reception and day of recollection was held. Also in April, Louisville conducted the Sodality district meeting. The entire student body participated in the Sodality-organized Mission Day May Procession, during which the new prefect crowned the statue of Our Lady.

national honor society gives aid to students teachers, and charities

Louisville's chapter of the National Honor Society has asserted itself this year as one of the most active groups on campus. The purpose of the society is to foster and develop scholarship, service, leadership, and character in its members. This year the society has initiated several new programs as well as carrying on the traditional activities. The main projects of the N.H.S. included the bi-monthly Alumnae Letter, a tutoring service for the benefit of the student body, a secretarial service for the faculty members, and assistance in the publishing of the counselling bulletins for seniors. The N.H.S. members were also very helpful in teaching classes during weekly faculty meetings. The society's activities also extended beyond Louisville's campus—N.H.S. worked with the Foundation for the Junior Blind and the Crippled Children's Home during their respective campaigns for contributions.

service club, becomes an active and important part of louisville

The Service Club has completed another year of assistance to the Louisville faculty and student body. The club, moderated by Sister Mary Josaphat, has greatly increased in size and responsibilities. As their major project, the members reorganized the school Lost and Found. Among its other duties, the Service Club hostesses meetings and conferences held at Louisville, serves at school brunches and dinners, and actively participates in all other student body activities. The promotion of student service and school spirit, a major achievement this year, will continue to be the club's goal in the future.

art club

The Art Club, moderated by Mrs. Harshman, has had a very successful and rewarding year. The two-fold purpose of the club is to instill an appreciation of fine art in the individual student and to educate the entire student body by exposure to such art. To further the second purpose, the project this year was the presentation of a movie produced by the Metropolitan Museum of Arts. Along with the formation of the Art Guild, which makes posters for various school activities, the big event of the year was the May Fiesta. The Art Club sponsored a booth, selling rings, bracelets and paper flowers, which the members had worked on since October. The profits were used to purchase new easels for the Art room. Club members also helped with the decorations for Father-Daughter Night and the Mardi Gras Dance. A field trip to the Los Angeles Art Museum and a party at the end of the semester completed the school year.

le cercle francais discovers french culture

The French Club, officially known as Le Cercle Francais, is moderated by Sister Mary Molua. The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in France and her people. At the meetings, film strips of the country, its various sections, and its interesting sights are frequently shown. During the year the club went on a field trip to the Matisse Art Exhibition at U.C.L.A. It also sponsored a booth at the Louisville Fiesta.

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS: Dyanna Bartholomew, President; Lori Tryer, Vice-president; Michele Bowler, Secretary; Meg Johnson, Sergeant-at-Arms; Ann Helmick, Treasurer.

latin club brings caesar and cicero to the twentieth century

Latin club members sing carols in Latin at the Christmas assembly.

Caesar's Gallic Wars, Cicero's oration, and Hannibal's crossing of the Alps are familiar topics to the Latin student. But the Latin Club strives to make these historical figures more meaningful and applicable to each of its members. During the year, many enjoyable meetings and activities were planned to promote interest in the Latin language. As a member of the Junior Classical League, the club sent members to many of the J.C.L. sponsored activities. During the summer, three delegates attended the annual J.C.L. National Convention at U.S.C.; members also attended the State Convention at South Hills High School and the college field trip.

As a result of club participation in the National Association for Promotion of the Study of Latin Examination, Louisville was awarded a trophy for excellent performance of three Latin Club members.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS: Maria de Zarraga, President; Tina Soldato, Treasurer, Rose DeGiorgio, Secretary; Regina Dieli, Vice-president; Ruth Cepin, Sergeant-at-Arms.

the spirit of latin america is brought to the student body

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to promote a favorable relationship between Latin America and the United States, and to stimulate an appreciation for the Spanish Language. The activities of the club members this year included Pan American Day, a presentation of skits, songs, and dances dealing with the culture and folklore of various Spanish-speaking countries. Moderated by Mrs. DuBarry, the club also sponsored a Christmas trip to Olvera Street in Los Angeles, the highlight of which was the Las Posadas celebration. With these activities, the club aroused student interest and enjoyed a very successful year.

The Library Club assists Sister Mary Concord, moderator, in the maintenance of the library. In this way, active members learn library procedures and functions. The club is divided into various committees, each with specific duties for the improvement of library facilities. The major fund raising event was the annual February hootenanny, which featured folk-singing groups from Louisville and other schools. At the club's student body assembly, the head librarian from the Woodland Hills Branch Library spoke about a career in Library Science.

science fair projects reflect students' interests

Sister Mary Triona and Science club members put their scientific knowledge to use at Leo Carillo Beach.

This year, under the direction of Sister Mary Triona, the Science Club participated in various activities to stimulate interest in the study of science, and to develop an appreciation for science's influence in many fields. One of these activities was a field trip to Leo Carillo Beach to identify marine specimens. The primary activity of the year was the Science Fair in May, where each member displayed a project connected with a scientific field of her choice.

speech and drama club

To encourage discrimination in all modes of entertainment is the goal of the Speech and Drama club. Field trips to the presentations of Medea at the Valley Music Theater and Romona highlighted the year's club activities. Moderated by Miss Clem, the club also sponsored Miss Mary Louise Hickey's performance of The Diary of Anne Frank for the entire student body. Club members participated in A Song of Christmas and the spring program, a one-act play, The Ugly Duckling, cast exclusively from seniors.

This year the Speech and Drama Club actively participated in various speech contests. As entertainment at the monthly meetings, individual members presented their prepared entries to the club.

Chantal Denny, Debbie Makush, and Jill Kelsey represented Louisville in speech contests.

local hospitals and parishes enjoy louisville's choir

The Louisville Choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Paul and Mr. Paul Salamunovich, was very active during this school year. A Song of Christmas, a musical dramatization of Christ's birth, was presented at Louisville and Saint Mel's in December. Also at Christmas, the choir members caroled at various hospitals and sang High Masses at local parishes. Their participation in the Archdiocesan Music Festival was outstanding. The choir's successes in these activities were a result of their diligence and hard work.

AURORA STAFF: Missy Moravec, Kristi Giminez, Kathy Parks, Lori Tryer, Janet Flammang, Maureen Murry, Frances Riggs, Editor.

Aurora, Louisville's literary magazine, encourages and promotes creative writing by the student body. The purpose is to instill in the student an appreciation for literary work and to arouse her desire to write. This year, the magazine emphasizes a modern approach. Poetry, essays, and short stories are submitted to the student staff, which is moderated by Mrs. Huckaby. From these, the most outstanding examples are selected for publication.

royals in action

The years of 1965 and 1966 have brought glory to Louisville through the many victories of the ROYAL team. The sportsmanship of all team members has made the Student Body proud to show their blue and gold colors in tournaments and meets. Congratulations to all those who represented Louisville by participating in the field of athletics.

The second place trophy at Villa Cabrini Tournament is accepted by Jan Ehlen, Shannon Fay, and Patty Raab for the Volleyball varsity.

tennis team

The tennis team was under the professional direction of Mr. Sidoné this year. A "tennis ladder" was begun, whereby, anyone could challenge a member of the Varsity and compete for team membership. This idea is new in Louisville and much is expected as it develops in coming years.

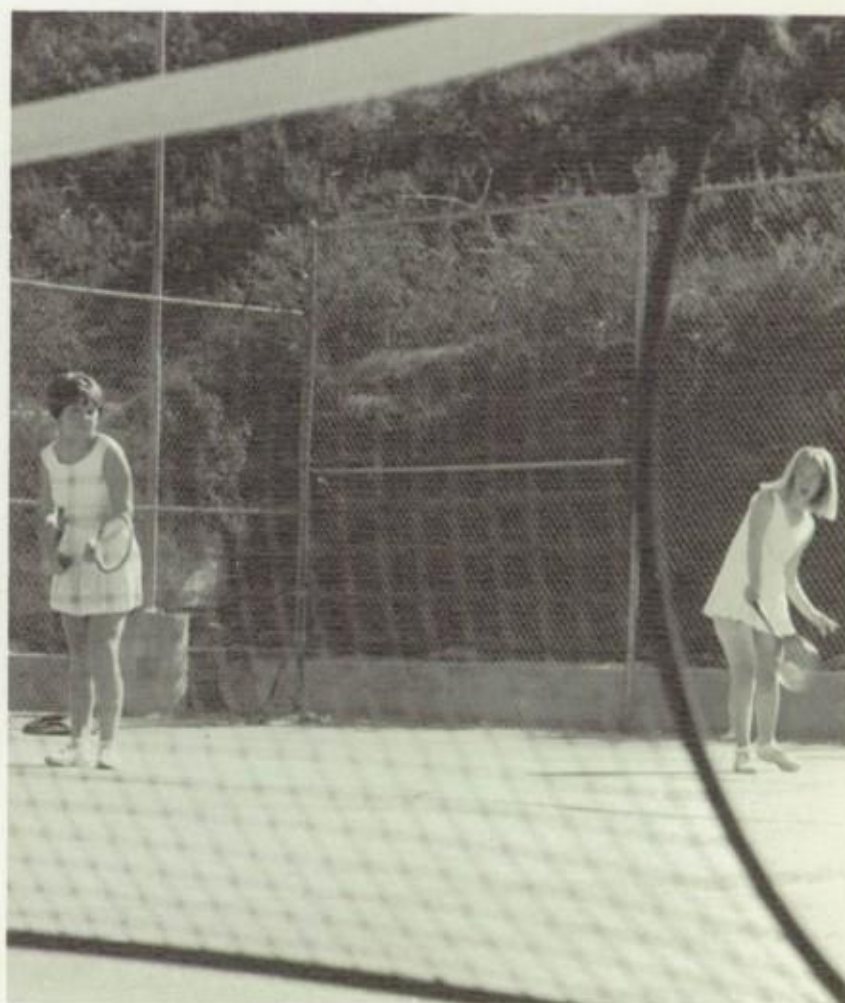

The Varsity performed at the St. Catherine and Mayfield Tournaments and were preparing for a meet to be held at Louisville in April.

sportsmanship and athletics encouraged by girls athletic association

The Girls Athletic Association, directed by Miss Yanis, emphasizes the importance of athletic events, good sportsmanship and team loyalty in student activities. The organization supported competition against other high schools in the C.I.F. League in volleyball and basketball. Louisville was also sponsored in tennis and swimming meets, held on an invitational basis. The Eighth Grade playdays, which involved the participation of local grade schools, were again sponsored by the G.A.A. The year climaxed with the Awards Banquet, held in May. This event commended those girls who deserved recognition for their excellence in various sports.

pep club generates school spirit

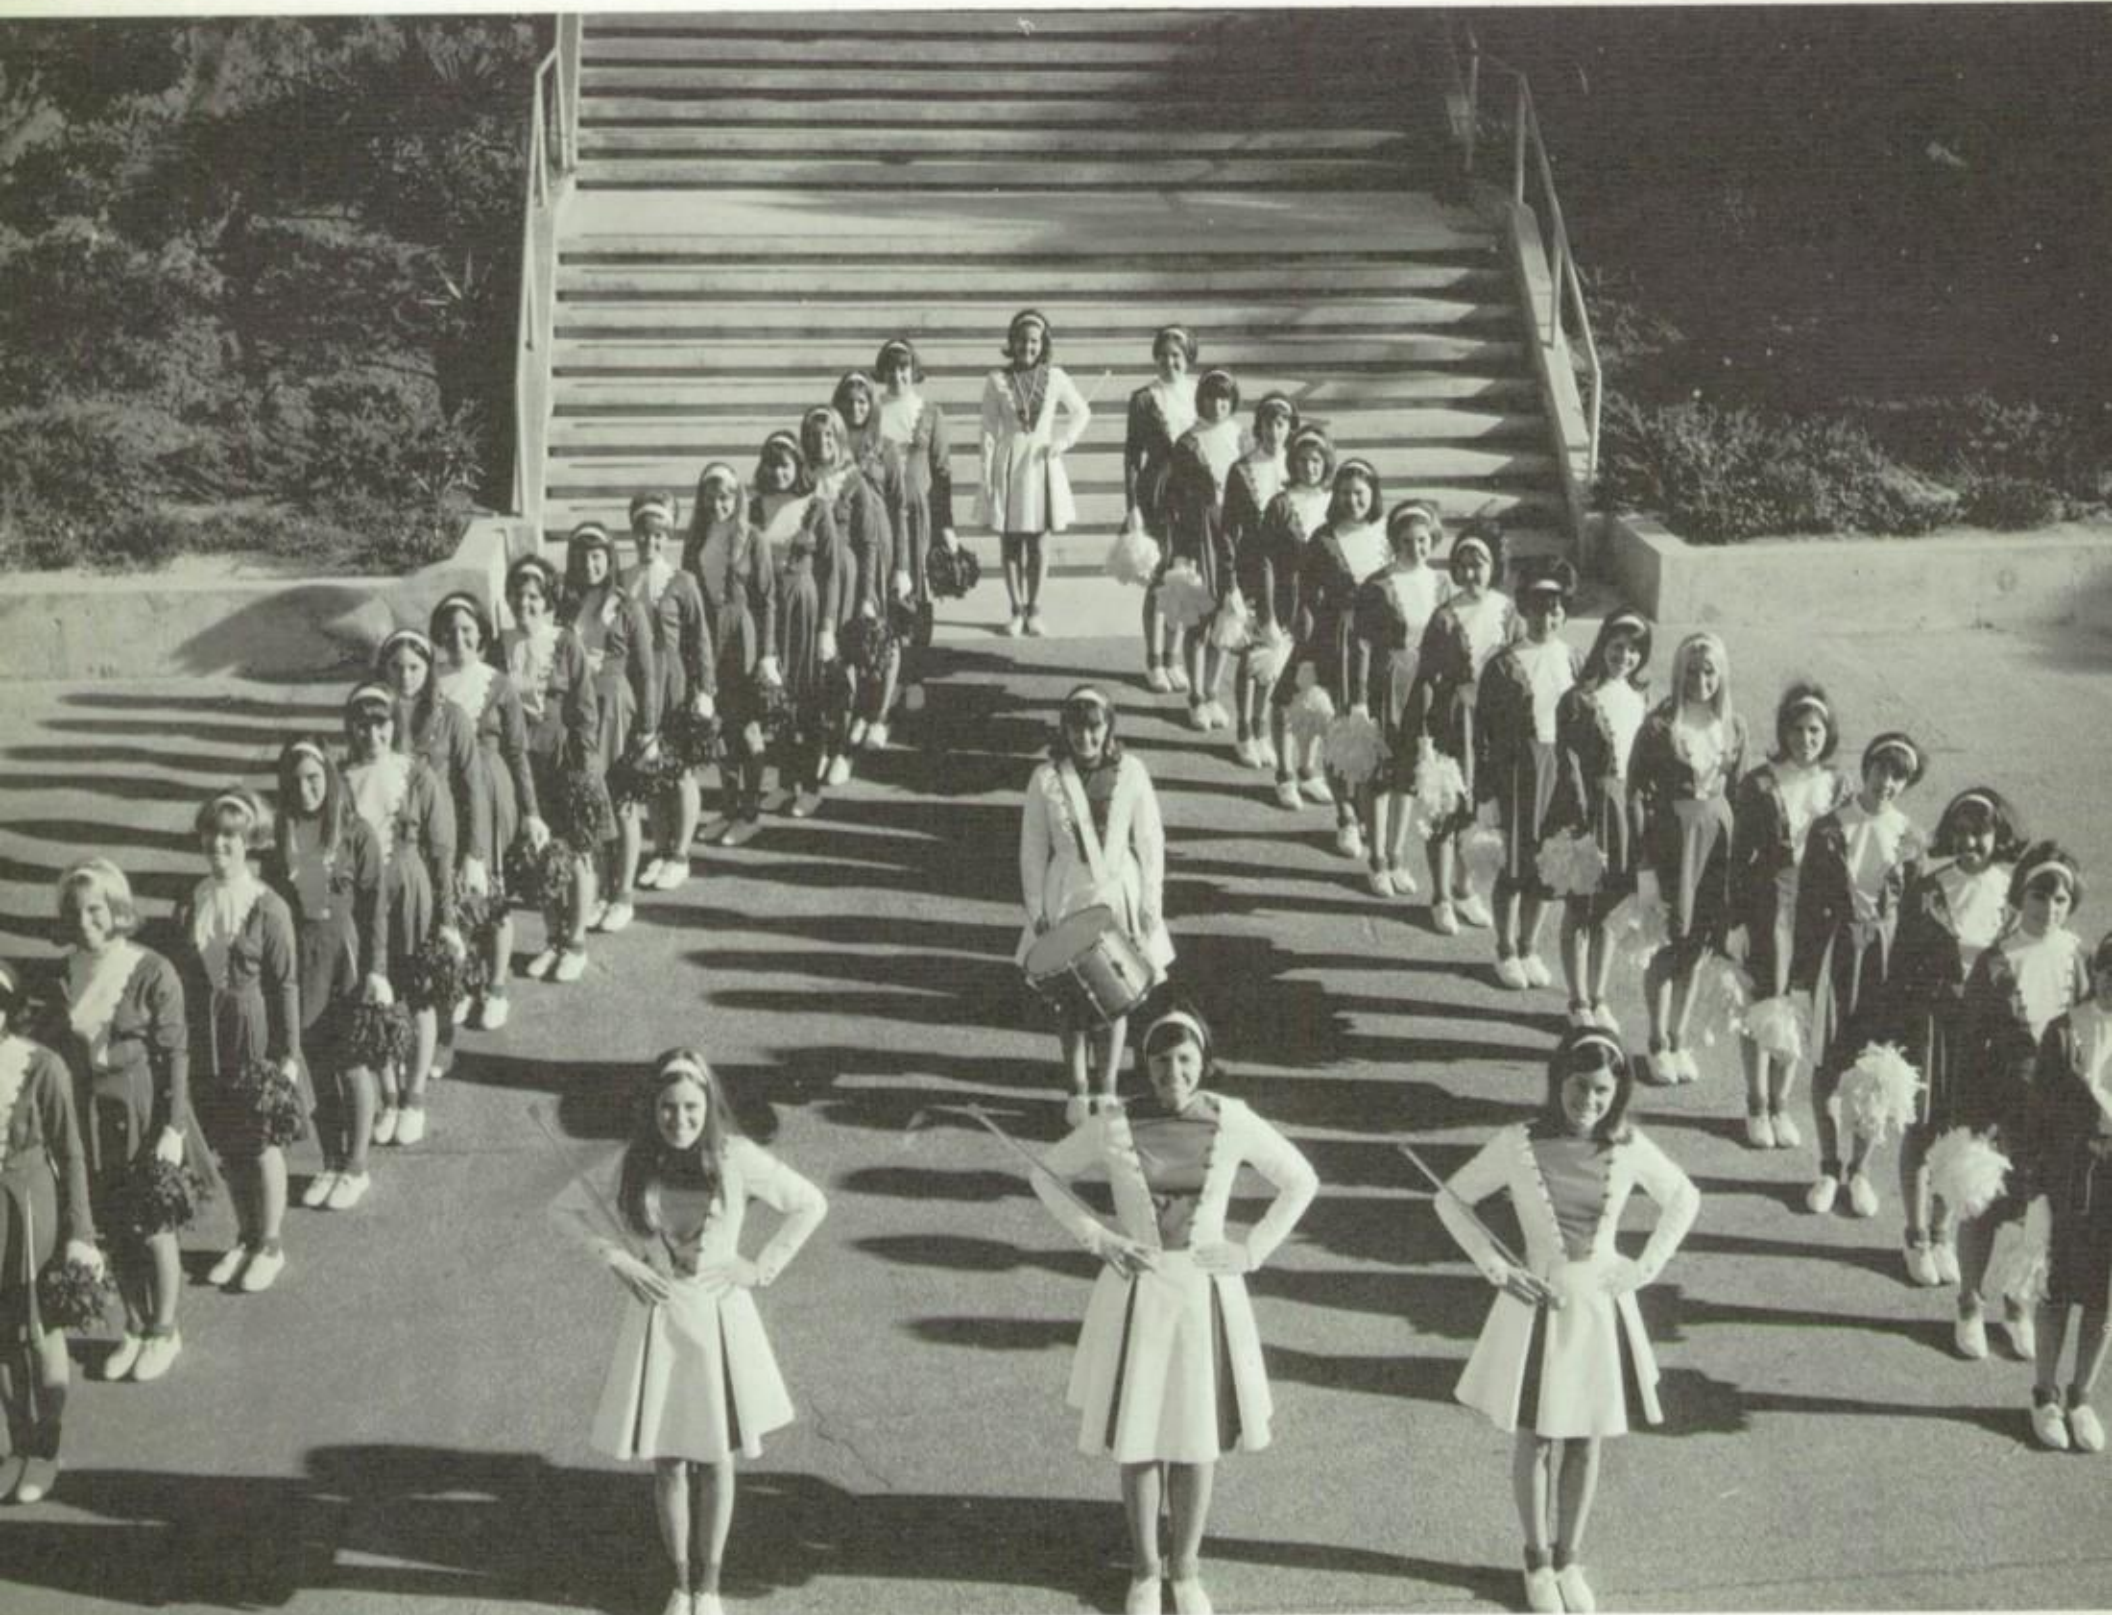

Pep rallies, St. Anthony's Tournament, and league games—all of these events are familiar to Pep Club members. The club encourages school participation and spirit by providing bus transportation to basketball and volleyball games. This year the Pep Club initiated a Cheer Committee to create original cheers for the Louisville ROYALS. Active student body participation, not only in athletic but in all school functions, was an important result of the Pep Club's efforts.

drill team adds spirit to royal games

Long practices, hard work, and school spirit characterize the drill team, directed by Sister Mary Otteran. During the year the team performed at Crespi High School, and at a Patron's Guild meeting. New drill routines were introduced at Saint Anthony's Tournament in March.

patrons' guild

The annual Louisville Fiesta is sponsored by the Patron's Guild.

The Patron's Guild strives to maintain a spirit of unity and cooperation among the parents, faculty and students. The "Fleur de Lis", published monthly, helps keep Louisville parents informed on school news and activities. As its major social event, the Patron's Guild annually sponsors a Saint Patrick's Day fashion show and luncheon. It also presents a May music festival.

Mrs. Brace, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Masters, Mrs. Lombardi, Mrs. Card and Mrs. Papanek help catalogue library books.
